The various booths were colorfully decorated and were all well patronized and hung out the "Sold Out" sign before closing time. However, the ice cream and candy booths had the edge due no doubt to the difficulty in these days of the ingredients in making and the difficulty in procuring what the public so greatly desires.

Mrs. Edouard C. Carrere, general chairman of arrangements, her willing co-workers and the splendid generous response of the public made the 1943 Waveland Fair a gigantic financial success.

The ladies in charge of the booths were as follows: Country Store: Mrs. Angele: sandwich: Mrs. E. Funk assisted by Mrs. Paul Fayard and Edwin Socola; Cakes: Mrs. Labasse Robin assisted by Mrs. Lecoigne and Mrs. Walker: Ice Cream: Mrs. Turcotte assisted by Miss Cecile Turcotte; Candy: Mrs. Edouard Carrere, assisted by Miss Rose Marie Robin. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hamilton, Mrs. C. M. Frearing and Miss Adele Rivet. The beer and Coca Cola tables were efficiently handled by the gentlemen of the Parish.

ANNUAL CHURCH FAIR OF OUR LADY OF THE GULF GREAT SUCCESS

The annual church fair for Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church which was held July 31-August 1, proved to be a greater financial success than was expected.

The weather was in keeping with the occasion and large crowds were present each night. The $25 War Bond was won by Mrs. Sidney Manieri and Miss Ber-

Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch, the pastor, and his assistants take this method of thanking the many who contributed in any way in making the fair the success that it was. These included the Sisters of St. Joseph, the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, automobile somersaulted off Highway Boy Scouts, members of St. Margarets Daughters and other ladies of the Parish. They also thank the men who gave untiringly of their time to the operating of the booths and especially do they appreciate those who put the grounds in order and erected the booths. None of

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

THE voters will go to the polls on Tuesday, August 24th, to Government in a single year. make their final decision in the races where there will be run-offs.

Much interest is centered in the races for members of the Board of Supervisors. This is one of the most important jobs in the county. A member of the Board of Supervisors is in truth for the raising of Fifteen Billion Dol- what has been done by the P. T. A. of Directors of a corporation. To this body of men is entrusted the affairs of the county. They are responsible for its welfare.

These five men sit as a body to work out all details pertaining financing in the history of the job for the children of your comto county government. They are the assessing power in the county. They are the ones responsible for the spending of the tax have made a fine record in all war on Wednesday, past state president, Beat Five is the largest beat in the county as to population and assessment. It should be represented by a cool, level-headed man who can sit and discuss with the other members of the Board the wants and the needs of his beat. It should be represented by one who has the confidence of his fellow members, and who can get for his beat what it should justly have. We should realize that a majority of the members control the decisions of the Board, and that no member can accomplish anything unless he has the cooperation of the others, and we should realize that in the event we elect a supervisor who has been antagonistic to other members and against whom there is prejudice, it would be far better for Beat Five if it had no representation.

In making their selection on August 24th, the voters should take all of this into consideration and should weigh the merits of the two candidates, choosing the one that they feel can best serve them, and who will be able to sit with the other gentlemen on the Board and handle the affairs of the county without prejudice. Beat Five needs that type of Supervisor.

CRITICISM: GOOD OR BAD?

AURICE Maeterlick discusses criticism in The Good Housekeeping Magazine, differentiating between healthy, constructive criticism and the malicious, destructive kind.

It would be rather hard to divide criticism into these two erected at a cost of five to six milcategories. It is possible for just criticism to be constructive lion dollars. The plant consists of or destructive.

The better test, we think, is suggested by the writer when he ridors under roof. When the staff urges us to test the motives of the gossip-carrier, the rumor-monger and the critic. # WAR RATION BOARD COLUMN

Late applications for War Ration Book Three will be accepted by the Hancock County War Price and Rationing Board during the period from August 1 to 10, Mr. Ford, chairman of the board, announced today.

Anyone who does not receive War Ration Book Three during July or who has not filed an application should apply at the War Price and Rationing Board after August 1.

Where applications have been mailed but no books received, the applicant should present the stub of his original application blank to the board. If the stub has been lost, the applicant will fill out a special form and will receive books by mail, though there may be a slight additional delay,

Both late and new applications turned into the War Price and Rationing Board will be forwarded to the State War Ration Book Control Center, now being set up in Jackson, as the premanent file headquarters for records on Book Three, and all books will be mailed from there Before books are mailed, late applications will be checked against the files to avoid possibility of the issuance of duplicate books. In the future, these records will also serve for reference when books are lost

"MR. LUCKY" IS HEART WARMING DRAMA AT A. & G. SUN.-MONDAY

Cary Grant is Starred And Laraine Day Heads Featured Cast

Starring the actor in what is said to be his finest role to date Cary Grant's latest picture, "Mr. Lucky" tells the engrossing tale of a selfsatisfied gambler who finds he can't buck the combination of fate, a girl and a double-cross.

Laraine Day has her biggest optunity as the heroine, a Park Avenue socialite whose interest in war relief work brings her into contact with Grant, a gambling-boat owner seeking a bankroll. Grant wants money and doesn't care how he gets it; Miss Day wants money, too, to buy medical supplies to send abroad, but she doesn't approve of Grant's suggestion that he operate a gambling concession at a big charity ball which the relief association is giving.

By trickery and charm and aided by the fact that the girl is falling in love with him, Grant finally gets her consent to the scheme, though she is unaware that he is calmly planning to run off with the entire receipts. But his biggest trick backfires on him unepectedly, and in a sudden burst of honesty he decides to play fair with the girl and the relief organization.

This, however, doesn't suit his greedy ex-partner and things begin to happen with firecracker speed when the ball gets under way. The outcome leads to the picture's surprise ending, which is handled in an unusual fashion.

Supporting the two principals is a notable cast headed by Charles Bickford as the tough old skipper of Grant's boat, Gladys Cooper as the head of the war relief group and Alan Carney, a talented newcomer, as Grant's loyal bodyguard.

MIKE CONNER thails

the People of Mississippi

You, the men and women of Mississippi have spoken. You have endorsed my candidacy for governor with a total of over 107,000 votes. You have honored me with a majority over my nearest opponent of approximately 40,000 votes, giving me the lead over him in 69 counties. You gave me first place over all opponents in 53 counties and you put me in either first or second place in every county in Mississippi with the exception of four. My nearest opponent ran first in only 10 counties.

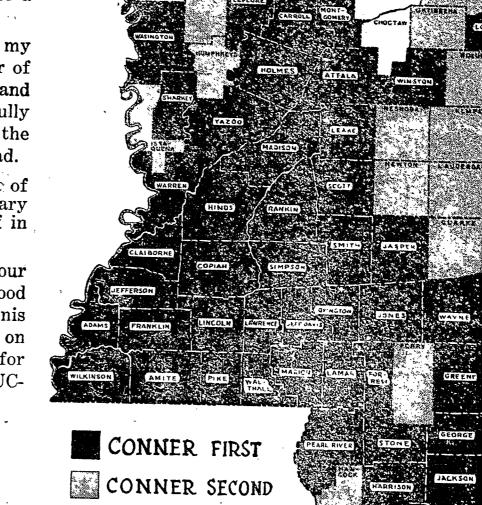

For your most generous expression I am deeply grateful. Your confidence and support encourage me to continue with increased vigor my fight for a sound administration of the peoples' business.

I feel that your vote was an endorsement of my record and of the service I rendered as governor of Mississippi in the dark days of the depression, and an expression of your confidence in me to faithfully and efficiently serve you as governor during the critical period of reconstruction which lies ahead.

I also feel that your vote was an endorsement of the clean campaign we waged in the first primary and that you want us to carry on in the run-off in the same way.

Let me thank each and every one of you for your loyalty and vote, and urge you to continue the good work. We cordially invite the friends of Dennis Murphree and Lester Franklin to join with us on August 24th to pile up an overwhelming majority for AGGRESSIVE, COURAGEOUS AND CONSTRUC-TIVE government in Mississippi.

Sincerely yours,

Conner led in 53 counties. Conner led run-off opponent in 69 counties.

THIS COMMUNITY HAS A SPECIAL MAR JOB

THIS COMMUNITY is on the spot! We are in a pulpwood growing section and there is now a pulpwood shortage. The country needs vast quantities of pulpwood for explosives, rayon parachutes, gas mask filters, shipping containers and a thousand other uses — yet some of the mills that make these things are actually shutting down for lack of wood.

This is a desperate situation a war emergency. Something must be done QUICKLY!

And only we who live in the pulpwood cutting areas can do anything about it.

This is OUR responsibility.

CARD OF THANKS

To The Voters of Lamar, Pearl River, and Hancock Counties:

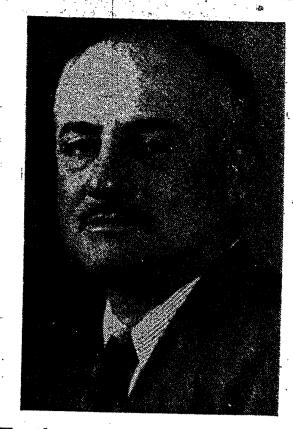

I am deeply grateful to you for the nomination for the office of State Senator without opposition. It comes to me as a free and voluntary gift from friendly hands and honest hearts. I do not, therefore, take unto myself much of the credit for what you have done. Let me say, however, that such expressions of loyalty and confidence both humbles and encourage my heart. I am not vain enough to imagine that your choice fell upon me rather than upon someone else because of any superior merit of mine. I prefer to think that, after considering my long tenure of service to the people of my home county, after reveiwing the sixuation surrounding my candidacy, you decided—whether wisely or foolishly, time will tell—that the nomination should fall to me; and for this expression of your kindness and good will, I thank you a thousand times.
